Insert Scope

The Grantee will partner with Alaska Native Tribal Health Organization (ANTHC) to provide training for two participants for one year. One first year student from Noatak who will work in Noatak and one second year students from Kiana who will work in Kiana will become Alaska Dental Health Aid Therapists.

The primary goal of DHAT program is prevention and the clinical focus will be teaching prevention practices. This program will provide dental services including prevention and education. The DHAT therapists will be skilled at diagnosis of dental decay using x-rays, development of treatment plans and the provision of local anesthetics in order to restore and extract teeth under the general supervision of their collaborating Dentist.

The first year of training is conducted in Anchorage where participants receive both didactic and clinical instruction. The second year clinical clerkship will be under direct supervision of licensed Dentists working at the Yuut Elitnaurviat Dental Health Training Clinic in Bethel.
